

CITIZENS' ARMY DRILLED IN DUBLIN BEFORE REBELLION

Two Weeks Before Outbreak
Irishmen in Uniform Paraded in Streets.

BRITISH HAD WARNING.

First Irish Newspaper to Arrive
Here Tells How Revolution
Was in the Air.

A copy of the Dublin Weekly Freeman of April 22—the first Irish newspaper to reach this country in three weeks—was received to-day and news items printed therein indicate that a week before the revolution there was, in Dublin and throughout Ireland, a generally accepted idea that something in the way of an outbreak was to occur within a short time.

One item tells of the seizure in Dublin of a number of shotguns—made in the United States—ammunition, bayonets and a quantity of revolvers in the hands of two young men who were about to convey them in an automobile to Ferns, County Wexford.

There was a lengthy police court proceeding. Constables testified that the young men who had the arms were identified with the Sinn Fein and the Irish Volunteers. The arms were confiscated and the prisoners were sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

The Corporation of the City of Dublin held a heated meeting at the City Hall on April 19 for the purpose of adjusting the tax rate. Alderman Thomas Kelly in a long speech accused the police and military authorities of seeking to foment a "premature revolution" of the Irish Volunteers. The Alderman read and had spread on the records of the meeting an order, which has since been repudiated by the Government, which he claimed had been issued by Dublin Castle.

ALL MEMBERS OF SINN FEIN ORDERED ARRESTED.

The alleged order reads: "The following precautionary measures have been sanctioned by the Irish Office, on the recommendation of the general officer commanding the forces in Ireland. All preparations will be made to put these measures in force immediately on receipt of an order issued from the Chief Secretary's office, Dublin Castle, and signed by the Under Secretary and the general officer commanding the forces in Ireland. First, the following persons to be placed under arrest: All members of the Sinn Fein National Council, the Central Executive Irish Sinn Fein Volunteers, General Council Irish Sinn Fein Volunteers County Board Irish Sinn Fein Volunteers, Executive Committee National Volunteers, Coiste Gnotha Committee Gaelic League. See List A, 3 and 4 and supplementary list A, 2.

"Dublin Metropolitan Police and Royal Irish Constabulary Forces in Dublin City will be confined to barracks, under the direction of the competent military authority. An order will be issued to inhabitants of city to remain in their houses until such time as the competent military authority may otherwise direct or permit. Pickets chosen from units of Territorial Forces will be placed at all points marked on Maps 3 and 4. Accompanying mounted patrols will continuously visit all points and report every hour.

"The following premises will be occupied by adequate forces, and all necessary measures used without need of reference to headquarters: First, premises known as Liberty Hall, Beresford Place, No. 6 Harcourt Street, Sinn Fein Building, No. 2 Dawson Street, headquarters Volunteers; No. 12 D'Olier Street, Gaelic League Office; No. 41 Rutland Square, Foresters' Hall; Sinn Fein Volunteer premises in city; all National Volunteer premises in city; Trades Council premises, Capel Street; Surrey House, Leinster Road, Rathmines. The following premises will be isolated and all communication to or from prevented: Premises known as Archbishop's House, Brimondra; Mansion House, Dawson Street; No. 40 Herbert Park, Leinster Road; Road; Westown Park, Ballyboden; Saint Edna's College, Hermitage, Rothbarham; and in addition premises in list B, D, see Maps 3 and 4.

ALL MENTIONED IN ORDER PROMPTLY ARRESTED.

It will be noted that the persons indicated in this alleged order were promptly arrested and that many of them have been executed; also that many of the premises mentioned were seized by the Government but not until they had been occupied and defended by the armed revolutionists.

That the rebels drilled in uniforms and paraded in public in Dublin two weeks before the rebellion is established by the following paragraph from the Weekly Freeman: "On Sunday a green flag was unfurled over Liberty Hall by a young lady wearing the colleen costume. The Citizen Army also went through some military evolutions outside the building, and the pipers' band of the Transport Workers' Union played a number of Irish airs. Mr. James Connolly, wearing the uniform of the Citizen Army, addressed the assemblage. The proceedings passed off quietly. There were only a few policemen and detectives on duty in Beresford Place."

Connolly was arrested at the outbreak in Dublin and is supposed to have been wounded.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS ARE INVITED TO CAMP

Major Gen. Wood Urges Them to Receive Military Instruction
During the Summer.

Major-General Wood, commander of the Department of the East of the United States Army, issued an appeal to-day to boys in the public high schools to enter a camp of military instruction this summer. Gen. Wood explained that a sufficient number of recruits from private and preparatory institutions had promised to attend and that a larger percentage of students in the public high schools was desired.

"This camp of instruction," Gen. Wood's appeal said, "will be at Fort Perry on Plum Island, in Long Island Sound, from July 4 to August 16. The camp will be conducted as a subdivision of the Plattsburg camp, for boys between the ages of fifteen and seventeen inclusive. The camp will be on the military reservation. The surroundings are admirable and the sanitation is excellent. Officers of the regular army will have direct supervision and officers of the medical corps will be in attendance."
